MEMORANDUM FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE AFGHANISTAN SIG

Subject: Followup to the April 23 Meeting of the SIG

As agreed at the April 23 meeting, Ambassador Hinton requested and received Pakistani clarification on seven issues that relate to the U.N.-sponsored negotiations whose seventh round is to open in Geneva shortly. We will be watching developments in Geneva closely.

The NSC-chaired subcommittee that has been charged with developing ideas for enhancing the status of the Afghan resistance Alliance should consider and make a recommendation for the timing of the invitation for the Alliance spokesman's visit to Washington.

I have asked Ambassador Dunbar, in his capacity as Executive Secretary of the SIG, to hold periodic meetings with members of the SIG at the working level to review activities under the purview of the SIG. Dunbar will provide me and the other members of the SIG regular reports on the progress achieved, as well as recommendations as to when meetings of the SIG itself are required.

Michael H. Armacost
